

A charming estate in southern Maine—just a short drive from Boston and Portland.

There are places that feel like home from the moment you arrive.

Comfortably familiar and welcoming, yet brimming with the promise of new and enriching experiences. Elegant and classic, down to the tiniest detail, while still offering every convenience the modern traveler expects. You'll get the feeling we've taken your every possible need into consideration. Because we have. Welcome to the Lady Mary Inn.

You might just recognize a bit of yourself in your hosts, Ryan and Steve. Endlessly curious city dwellers, who discovered that the peaceful rhythms of country living inspired them to revisit life-long passions like nurturing a diverse and abundant garden in order to serve up fresh, sustainable culinary delights.

What People Are Saying

"We loved our stay here. Everything was perfect. We loved meeting Ryan and Steve. We will be back soon."

- Carol S. | August 2022

"We were barely out of our car and Ryan was at the front porch welcoming us like old friends. He sat with us and gave us a bit of background on the history of the Hurd Mansion/ Lady Mary Inn. The Inn itself is absolutely gorgeous and the King and Queen suites are enormous. The periodic presence of their two wonderful dogs, Vivien and Clarke, gave the whole Inn a feel of being in a home surrounded by family and friends. Stay at the Lady Mary Inn, you will be very happy you did!!"

- David W | August 2022

"You made us feel so very welcome, at your Inn and your garden. It was lovely to meet your friends and husband as well as your sweet boxers. We have fond memories of our stay with you. Thank You for everything!"

- Susi L. | July 2022
